A Dastardly Plot

A most dastardly plot hatched out by friends of Abe Ruef, the fallen boss and the other indicted higher-ups and grafters has been laid bare by the attempted assassination of Assistant District Attorney and chief prosecutor Francis J. Heney in Judge Lawlor's court in San Francisco last Friday afternoon at 4:25 o'clock.

Morris Haas, an ex-convict and rejected Ruef juror was the assassin. Coolly he walked up to where Mr. Heney and others were sitting at a table, suddenly whipped out a revolver and fired point blank at the prosecutor's head. The bullet entered the face about an inch from the right ear, plowed its way through the mouth cavity and lodged in the left jaw bone. Mr. Heney fell over the table and his cowardly assailant was immediately thrown upon the floor, disarmed and handcuffed before he could fire another shot.

Haas was taken to jail as was also Abe Ruef who was ordered into custody by Judge Lawlor at Ruef's urgent request.

Mr. Heney was taken to the Emergency Hospital and later to Lane's Hospital where the bullet was removed Monday. He is now steadily improving and will recover.

Nothing that has happened in San Francisco since the memorable days of the Vigilance Committees has so stirred the people of the metropolis and lynch law was freely talked of. Wiser heads prevailed, however, all the reserve police forces were called out and law and order triumphed. The grafters, boodlers, and criminal rich, the indicted higher-ups together with the newspapers who have taken sides with these criminals against decency and justice, justly received wholesale condemnation for their share in the outrageous plot. A number of the ablest criminal lawyers in the state immediately offered their services and the trial of the disgraced boss and other grafters will continue to the bitter end. What little sympathy the criminals had gained through the influence of the Examiner, Chronicle, Globe and Oakland Tribune is now practically gone forever.

It is now generally believed that a pistol was slipped to the would-be-murderer Haas in his cell where he suicided last Saturday by shooting himself in the head. Before he did the rash act, however, he partly confessed to Detective W. J. Burns and others the details of the plot that led to the attempted killing of the chief prosecutor.

Not only in San Francisco but throughout the state and nation the voice of outraged justice has been heard from every decent citizen in the land. President Roosevelt sent telegrams of sympathy for Mr. and Mrs. Heney and urged the prosecution to keep up the great work they have undertaken The great work will be kept up all right until every one of the rascals are put behind prison bars where they belong.

Sued For $10,000

Francois Bonnet of the French-American Bank in the metropolis has sued Henry Cailleaud, owner of Buena Vista Castle near this city, for $10,000 damages for accusing him (Bonnet) of stealing $17,500 from a safe deposit box, rented by Cailleaud in said bank. Mr. Bonnet strenuously denies the charge and says he knows nothing about the disappearance of the money. J. C. Sims, formerly of this county, is the plaintiff's attorney.

A. E. Sondag, the Tailor,

A. E. Sondag, the tailor, formerly of Sonoma, was in the valley this week taking orders for men's tailor-made suits. Mr. Sondag and family are temporarily located in Fruitvale, but the former expects to get permanent quarters for his tailoring establishment in the metropolis, in the near future. For many years he has enjoyed a liberal patronage from this valley and his work always gives satisfaction. Mr. Sondag will make regular weekly trips to the valley and solicits a share of he trade. Give him a trial orde for a good suit and you'll be satisfied. ctf

This season's styles are decidedly new in shape and unsurpassed as to style and coloring. G. H. Hotz

Delightful Concert

A rare treat was greatly enjoyed by the large audience that gathered in Union Hall last Friday evening to hear the University Glee Club of Berkeley. The entertainment was under the auspices of Sonoma Parlor, N. S. G. W., and was a very gratifying success in every way.

A very pleasing program had been arranged and each and every number received hearty applause. The net proceeds of the evenings entertainment amounted to over $90 and this sum will be used for protecting and repairing the "Old Mission" in this city until the legislature shall meet and grant an appaopriation to permaneotly preserve the historic landmark. F. T. Duhring, through whose efforts the Glee Club was induced to come here, is one of the Sutter's Fort Commission that has in charge this and other landmarks owned by the state.

The young men composing the University Glee Club were very much pleased with their visit to the historic old town of Sonoma and expressed a willingness to come again.

Business Change

The Sonoma Hotel for many years past successfully conducted by Frank Quartaroli has been purchased by Frank Giovanoni an experienced chef and caterer who has already taken possession Mr. Giovanoni has had eighteen years experience in the hotel business in San Francisco where he has a host of friends and will no doubt make a success of his business in this city. The hotel will be thoroughly renovated and be made as attractive and comfortable as possible for guests,

Mr. Quartroli has not yet decided on his future plans. His many friends in this city and valley wish him good luck in any new undertaking.

Consumption Preventative

Fresh air is the doctor.

Don't live study or sleep in rooms which are not full of fresh air.

Don't live in dusty air. Mop up dust with a damp cloth. Never sweep your rooms with a dry broom.

Don't eat with soiled hands. Wash them always before you go to table.

Don't keep soiled handkerchiefs in your pocket.

Seek sunlight.

Day and night, winter and summer, keep open the windows where you sleep.

Sleeping alone is well for the afflicted as well as for the well Frequent bathing is highly advisable. To avoid indiscriminate expectoration is a duty.

Plain food and plenty of it is the bill of fare for persons consumptively inclined.

Most of those who die from tuberculosis have neglected most of these rules of avoidance.

Consumption can be cured, in all but the advanced stages, by careful observance of sanitation. Fresh air, sunlight and food are its medicines.

HURRAH! HURRAH!

For Shellville and Embarcadero! More ducks than ever. Tony Happe's place has been crowded and every hunter shot the limit. The fishing is great, the smallest bass caught weighed 10 pounds. Tony's place is located on the Sonoma Creek where the fresh water runs into the salt. Duck dinners every Sunday. Every person visiting the Shellville and Embarcadero Resort, Tony Happe, proprietor, will be sure of a hearty welcome. Turkey raffling and bowling contest starts November 14.

How to Cure a Cold

Be as careful as you can you will occasionally take cold, and when you do, get a medicine of known reliability, one that has an established reputation and that is certain to effect a quick cure. Such a medicine is Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. It has gained a world wide reputation by its remarkable cures of this most common ailment, and can always be depended upon. It acts on nature's plan, relieves the lungs, aids expectoration, opens the secretions and aids nature in restoring the system to a healthy condition. During the many years in which it has been in general use we have yet to learn of a single case of cold or attack of the grip having resulted in pneumonia when this remedy was used, which shows conclusively that it is a certain preventive of that dangerous disease. Chamberlain's Cough Remedy contains no opium or other narcotic and may be given as confidently to a baby as to an adult. For sale by L. S. Simmons.

Several carloads of greenery have been shipped from this county to San Francisco in preparation for the Thanksgiving holidays.

$100 Reward, $100

The readers of this paper will be pleased to learn that there is at least one dreaded disease that science has been able to cure in all its stages, and that is Catarrh. Hall's Catarrh Cure is the only positive cure now known to the medical fraternity. Catarrh being a constitutional treatment. Hall's Catarrh Cure is taken internally, acting directly upon the blood and mucous surfaces of the system, thereby destroying the foundation of the disease, and giving the patient strength by building up the constitution and assisting nature in doing its work. The proprietors have so much faith in its curative powers that they offer One Hundred Dollars for any case that it fails to cure. Send for testimonials.

FRIDAY, NOVEMBER 20, 1908

It is very probable that President Elect Taft will appoint an entire new cabinet with the possible exception of Secretary of State, Elihu Root.

The Wells, Fargo Express Company have raised their rates on merchandise shipped from the East to California, 90 per cent., nearly double. This new rate goes into effect December 20, 1908. Dig, brothers, dig, the company needs the money.

It May Be So

The proposition of putting on motor cars on the Southern Pacific railroad through this valley to Santa Rosa, said cars to make frequent regular trips to and from the county seat has been under consideration by the company for some time. It is now rumored that such an improvement is about ready to be put into practice. We hope the rumor is true and that we will soon be enjoying that great convennnce.

Tariff a Local Issue

After all the tariff is a local issue. The growers want the tariff on lemons, hops, etc., increased and all the rest of the country don't want to pay more for these articles. The clothing manufacturers want the tariff on such goods as they make kept up or increased, while every other man in the United States who wears clothes don't want to pay twenty dollars for a fifteen dollar suit. In everything pertaining to steel and iron, the United States leads the world, yet the Steel Trust wants high tariff to increase their already millionaire-making profits. High protective tariffs are asked for and kept up upon the pretense of protecting American labor yet the employers of this country pay only such wages as they can't avoid paying, and no more. The poor laboring man has had to fight through labor unions for every cent of wages he gets and knows that the high tariff didn't help him a bit. The tariff issue simply comes to this; "Say, Mr. Republican Party, I want you to put a high protective tariff on every thing I raise or manufacture and take it off of everything that I use but don't produce.

Special Parcels Post

Postmaster-General George L. Von Meyer has announced that the postal deficit for the last fiscal year was $16,910,278.99, the greatest in the history of the country. The postal receipts for the last fiscal year were $191,478,663.41, and the expenditures were $208,351,886. The receipts for the fiscal year 1908, exceeded those of the fiscal year 1907 by $7,893,657.84

The Postmaster General suggested that as a means of preventing a deficit a special local post be inaugurated over rural free delivery route He declared that the establishment of thie parcels post would wipe out the deficit ultimately by making the rural free delivery routes self-supporting.

The postal receipts for October, 1908, showed a general increase over the receipts for the same month last year. The statements of the receipts from the fifty largest postoffices in the United States show that New York received $1,704,797.69 during this month, a six per cent increase over the receipts for the same month last year.

San Francisco is high in the list with $192,698.06—an increase of nearly 6 per cent over October, 1907.

A MYSTERIOUS DISAPPEARANCE

Fred Wolfe Starts Out for a Stroll and Does Not Return.

Has Been Gone Since Last Sunday Afternoon

On Monday evening, November 9th, when Mr. and Mrs. Frank Koenig of the Union hotel returned from a visit in San Francisco, they were accompanied by a gentleman friend, Mr. Fred Wolfe, a bridge builder of the metropolis. He remained at the Union Hotel enjoying a few days rest until last Sunday afternoon. Between three and four o'clock of that day, he asked Mrs. Koenig's brother, Chas. Livernash, to take a stroll about the valley with him Mr. Livernash was too busy to go and Mr. Wolf started to go out by himself. Since then he has not been seen or heard of by any one. Mr. Koenig has telephoned to the city and elsewhere, but has been unable to locate the missing man.

Mr. Wolfe and Mr. Livernash had their plans all made and their trunks packed ready to take the first train last Monday morning for Mexico, where they were to work on a large new bridge and naturally the people of the hotel were very much surprised when their guest did not return.

Mr. Wolfe was a quiet unassuming man and of a very friendly disposition. He is not a drinking man. He is a native of Germany, about 27 years of age. At the time of his disappearanee he wore a dark suit of clothes that had just been cleaned and pressed. He was clean shaven and of the blonde type. Is about five feet six inches tall and weighs in the neighborhood of 160 pounds. He was not sick nor despondent and seemed to be looking forward with pleasure to his intended trip with Mr. Livernash. His trunk and clothes are still in his room at the Union Hotel, and Mr. Koenig, the proprietor, is at a loss to know what has become of him. It is probable that he may eventually be found dead somewhere in the valley. The idea of foul play is hardly to be entertained. He had about $100 when he left the hotel. A search has been made about the valley and numerous inquiries made, but to no avail, His whereabouts may remain a mystery for many months. Fred Wolf is a member of a San Francisco aerie of the Fraternal Order of Eagles.

Any information as to Mr. Wolfe's whereabouts will be thankfully received by Frank Koenig of the Union Hotel, Sonoma, Calif.

Died in Richmond

Mrs. Paul B. MacQuiddy passed away at her home in Richmond yesterday morning at the age of 24 years. She leaves a husband and three small children to mourn the loss of a kind and affectionate wife and mother. The sympathy of all goes out to the bereaved family in their sad hour of affliction.

The remains will be brought to Sonoma tomorrow morning. The funeral cortege will start from the El Verano depot tomorrow morning upon the 10 o'clock train. Interment will be in Mountain Cemetery.

Sonoma Man on Trial

The trial of Henry Cailleaud, the wealthy Sonoma rancher, charged with disturbing the peace, has commenced before Judge Weller Tuesday in San Francisco. Charles Carpy, president of the French-American bank, testified that while he was passing Cailleaud on Montgomery street on the morning of Nov. 10th Cailleaud called him a thief and dirty scoundrel three times in the presence of several people.

Thanksgiving Eve Ball

You will have a jolly good time if you attend the Grand Thanksgiving Eve Ball in Union Hall next Wednesday evening, Nov. 25th. Excellent music has been engaged for the occasion. The proceeds of the ball will be given towards the improvement of the Catholic Cemetery in this city. The ball is under the auspices of the Sonoma Valley Council Y. M. I.

Dr. Eastland Hurt

While walking along the street in San Francisco a few days ago Dr. Eastland, a well-known druggist of this city, slipped and fell causing a severe fracture of the hip. He is now in a hospital in the metropolis and is resting as easily as could be expected. An operation has been performed and it will be some time before the patient will be able to personally attend to his business. The doctors fear that he may have been injured internally A registered pharmacist is in charge of the pharmacy during Dr. Eastlands absence. Mrs. Eastland came up from the city Thursday evening and reports that her husband who is in Lane Hospital is resting as easily as could be expected.

Runaway Rig

A little excitement was caused on Napa St. Tuesday evening by a horse and cart coming down the street at a lively pace without the driver. It seems the colt became frightened at a dog that rushed upon him and made too short a turn at the corner of 2nd St. East, causing Carl Weaver to fall out. The horse turned into Maffei lane was stopped by Emil Cornelius and brought back to the stable. The driver was not seriously injured, but was painfully bruised. The colt and cart were not damaged.

California Oyster and Chop House

The California Oyster and Chop House will open for business in the Clewe building on Broadway between the Glaister and Clewe stores tomorrow, Saturday, Nov. 21. Everything new, neat and clean. Meals served at all hours in first class style. K. Gabrielides, the proprietor, has had many years' experience as a chef and caterer and will no doubt serve his patrons well. He keeps constantly on hand fresh, Eastern and California oysters, shrimps, crabs, etc., also steaks and chops. Give him a trial.

Mr. Hartwell Passes Away

Chas. J. Hartwell, a well-known resident of Glen Ellen, passed away there early Tuesday morning at the age of 72 years. He had resided in Glen Ellen for many years and was highly respected. The funeral took place Wednesday afternoon in Santa Rosa, Rev. Colvin officiating.

Death of Mrs. Wilkins

Mrs. Celia Wilkins, formerly Miss Celia Waterman of Santa Rosa and Healdsburg, passed away in Fowler, Fresno Co. last Friday. She leaves a husband, infant child and numerous relatives and friends in this county to mourn her loss. She was a sister of Miss Ida Waterman of this city.

Fruit Growers Convention

The 35th annual convention of the State fruit growers will be held in Sacramento commencing Dec. 1. Among the prominent speakers are:—Mayor White, Gov. Gillet, J. W. Jeffrey, A. R. Briggs, Prof. W. W. Mackie and others.

Assault Case Postponed

The case of the People vs. Luigia Lia, charged with assault to murder C. Rigoni in this city some months ago, was to have come to trial Wednesday but has been postponed for two weeks.

Preliminary Hearing

The further hearing of the preliminary examination of Ettiore Bianchini, on a charge of attempting to kill Natale Pucci in Glen Ellen some time ago was heard in Glen Ellen today, Justice Atchinson of Santa Rosa presiding.

THE SUN RENOVATES AN OSTERMOOR MATTRESS

The Ostermoor is built (not stuffed) of elastic, fibrous Ostermoor sheets—germ-proof and vermin-proof. We know there is no mattress on earth "just-as-good" as the Ostermoor, and we are exclusive agents for your protection against worthless substitutes. Come to us for the genuine Ostermoor—a masterpiece of comfort. Order one.

Nothing but an occasional sun-bath is needed to keep an Ostermoor Mattress thoroughly renovated. It can't possibly get dirty inside. And if the tick gets soiled—soap and water and a brush cleans it. Why sleep on a mattress filled with dead animal hair? The very fact that it needs picking to pieces to clean it of dirt (and the germs stick!) should be enough to sicken one against it, for

CLEANING HAIR IS A DIRTY JOB.

The Young Physician.

WHAT HIS EXPERIENCE PROVED.

In the early sixties it was usually the duty of a practicing physician to ride many miles every day on his regular round of visits upon his patients. In those days a young man who had received a splendid medical training in one of the best medical colleges of that day was accustomed to ride ten, twenty, thirty miles or more visiting the sick and afflicted. His success was soon phenomenal. Doctors and families called him for consultation to towns at considerable distances by rail. His specialty was the cure of those common and distressing diseases of women. He had early discovered that by combining the extracts of the following medicinal plants, in just the right proportion, without the use of alcohol his "Prescription" almost invariably cured such cases. Later, in order to place this remedy before the public in a shape easily to be procured, he established a laboratory at Buffalo, N. Y., where regularly qualified chemists were put in charge to accurately prepare his "Prescription" and put it in shape for shipment to all parts of the world. This remedy, which he named Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription is not a "patent medicine" but a tonic and nervine for women, and a regular physician's prescription, and contains the following ingredients: Lady's Slipper root, Black Cohosh root, Unicorn root, Blue Cohosh root, Golden Seal root, and chemically pure glycerine.

Dr. Pierce does not claim for his "Favorite Prescription" that it is a "cure-all." It is recommended as a most perfect specific for woman's peculiar ailments So uniform are the results which follow the use of this remarkable remedy, that it can be truly affirmed of "Favorite Prescription" that it always helps and almost always cures. Ninety-eight per cent. of the women who give this medicine a fair and faithful trial are cured and remain cured.

It is a powerful invigorating tonic, imparting health and strength in particular to the womb and its appendages. The local, womanly health is so intimately related to the general health that when diseases of the delicate womanly organs are cured the whole body gains in health and strength. For weak and sickly women who are "worn-out," "run-down" or debilitated, especially for women who work in store, office or schoolroom, who sit at the typewriter or sewing machine, or bear heavy household burdens, Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription will prove a priceless benefit because of its health-restoring and strength-giving power.

THE PROOF.

"I want to tell you of the great improvement in my health, since taking your 'Favorite Prescription,'" says Mrs. H. S. Jones, of Forest, N. C. "When I began its use I was a physical wreck and had despaired of ever having good health again. Could not sit up all day. I noted a great improvement before the first bottle was all used. Was suffering with almost every pain that a woman is subject to; had inflammation of the ovaries, painful and suppressed periods, and other symptoms of female disease. After taking six bottles of 'Favorite Prescription' I felt like a new person. Can ride horseback and take all kinds of exercise and not feel tired."

Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Purgative Pellets

SIZE OF PELLETS

Only one or two of these tiny, sugar-coated Pellets will regulate, tone up and set in healthy, vigorous action a foul stomach, torpid liver and sluggish bowels. Little Pill, little dose; produce great results. First put up by old Dr. R. V. Pierce over 40 years ago. Much imitated but never equaled.

Eat all the good food you like. Quit dieting. You don't have to diet to cure dyspepsia. In fact you can not cure dyspepsia or indigestion that way, but rather you must add strength to the weak stomach by taking something that will digest the food which the stomach can not digest. Kodol is the only thing known today that will do this, foa Kodol is made of natural digestive juices found in a healthy stomach, and it digests all food completely. Kodol is pleasant to take, and is guaranteed to give relief in any case of stomach. Sold by all druggists.

Shake in a Bottle

Now is the time when the doctor gets busy, and the patent medicine manufacturers reap the harvest, unless great care is taken to dress warmly and keep the feet dry. This is the advice of an old eminent authority, who says that Rheumatism and Kidney trouble weather is here and also tells what to do in case of an attack.

Get from any good prescription pharmacy one-half ounce Fluid Extract Dandelion, one ounce Compound Kargon, three ounces Compound Syrup Sarsaparilla. Mix by shaking in a bottle and take a teaspoonful after meals and at bedtime.

Just try this simple home made mixture at the first sign of Rheumatism, or if your back aches or you feel that the kidneys are not acting just right. This is said to be a splendid kidney regulator, and almost certain remedy for all forms of Rheumatism, which is caused by uric acid in the blood, which the kidneys fail to filter out Any one can easily prepare this at home and at small cost.

Druggists in this town and vicinity, when shown the prescription, stated that they can either supply these ingredients, or, if our readers prefer, they will compound the mixture for them.

Wise Talks by the Office Boy.

I remember Mrs. Taft came out strong against our divorce laws. She said this divorce business is a greater peril than the trusts, and she favored a law prohibing divorces. She says it is too easy under our present laws to get unhitched. I suppose all the old codgers who want to stay at home nights and this "affinity" business helped Mr. Taft to take the highest seat in this country because his lady is sound on the matrimonial question. Have you been in to see our new fall and winter hats, suits and underwear? Remember this is the place to get good shoes. Our Rain goods are here; better get ready for rain.

A Brief Elopement

[Copyright, 1908, by T. C. McClure.]

None of the boy pupils in attendance at the Union school in Medina that particular winter that Professor Wellman was principal had the slightest idea that he had any romance in his soul. He hunted for boys to lick; he gave out double lessons; he scared little girls half to death with his scowls.

And yet the professor was bubbling over with soft heartedness and only waited an opportunity to develop it. The opportunity came two months after he did, and he was embracing it at the same time that we were calling him a stony hearted wretch and predicting that he would never find a woman to marry him. The professor, being a bachelor, went to board in the family of Deacon Hardman. The deacon had been a widower for five years and had at last at the age of forty-five married a girl of twenty-three. He was accounted a fatherly man and a good man, and it soon became common gossip that his young wife was making things bad for him. In the schoolmaster she had some one to tell her troubles to. What he didn't see as an inmate of the house she would tell him. When she became confidential he became her champion. She told him of the deacon slapping her mouth, and he shuddered. She told him of being choked, and he bubbled. She told him of being dragged around by the hair of the head and sat on, and he wanted to take the husband's life.

According to the young wife, the deacon was sly. He would call her his birdie at the table and half an hour later chastise her and squeeze her throat in the bedroom. He would sing hymns with her in the sitting room and threaten to murder her down cellar. The professor saw nothing, but heard all. His pity, indignation, sympathy and several other sentiments were aroused.

One day the deacon had to go over to Berryville on business that would detain him two days. He went by train, leaving the old horse and buggy at home. That night his wife and the schoolmaster eloped. Their trunks were packed and tied on to the buggy, and they set out to drive a distance of twenty-five miles to the train.

They had scarcely got clear of the town when the old horse, which had no sentiment in his soul and was not a bit interested in elopements, fell down and broke the shaft. Up to this moment the wife had been as soft as butter and as tender as chicken, but now she suddenly changed and called the professor names. She called him a doughhead and a fool and a lot of other things that astonished him, but by and by he repaired the broken shaft and a new start was made.

A mile farther on it began to rain. It was a cold rain. It was a rain that meant business. It soaked them to the skin in ten minutes. Then the deacon's birdie swore. She swore cheerfully and freely. The astonished professor chided her, and she slapped his mouth. He expressed his belief that she wasn't the martyr he took her for, and she slapped it again.

By and by the rain held up. It will do that sometimes, no matter whether you are eloping or out on the road buying hogs. Then a new start was made. The professor was between two minds. He didn't know whether to keep on and save the woman from further chokings or go back and lick the boys harder than ever, and as a consequence he drove into a mudhole, the whole outfit sticking fast. Thinking he had arrived at the end of his journey, the old horse lay down and allowed the buggy to settle to the hubs. The woman swore some more. She also clawed the professor's face.

It took an hour to make the horse understand that the journey had just begun and to extricate the vehicle, and then a new start was made for an island in the Pacific. Sentiment had chilled, but not killed. They had made another half mile and were talking about the way the husband had menaced her with the crowbar when both front wheels of the weary buggy went down in unison, the old horse staggered and lurched around, and finally the outfit rolled down the bank into a creek. The woman was the first out. She welcomed the professor with language and kicks. She made a new attack on him with fists and fingers. In fact, he had to haul off and hit her in the nose in self defense. The professor crawled up the bank and started back for the village. If any observations followed him he gave them no heed. He knew that he was followed for some distance by a woman with a club, but in the darkness he had all the advantage.

On Saturday and Sunday we saw the professor about. He looked like a man that had loved and lost. The deacon got home Sunday night to find that his wife had gone, and certain folks said that they hadn't seen him look so relieved since his marriage. He was even jocular and jolly in his talk. On Monday morning we were in school at the usual hour. So was the professor. That something was about to happen we could all see. Something did. He began with the biggest boy in school and went down to the smallest girl and administered to each one a thorough tanning.

Then he remarked that school was dismissed pending the arrival of a new teacher, and he headed the procession as we all walked out. We were glad at the time, but conscience stricken later on. We had sized him up as possessing a heart of stone, whereas he was simply bubbling over with tenderness for his fellow men. The deacon's wife never returned. She continued on and eloped by herself.
